SUSTAINED EXCELLENCE IN BETTERING PATIENT OUTCOMES (NEW)

In recognition of the PRIME Awards' 15th year, this inaugural award seeks to reward a programme of work that has made a significant contribution to bettering patient outcomes and the lives of Australian patients over a sustained period of time. This category can be entered by any organisation within the pharmaceutical and life sciences industry. The programme of work needs to show results dating back to June 2016 or earlier. The entry must also include results in the most recent period, between January 2018 and June 2019.

The judges will be looking for submissions that show consistency in their work over time.

ENTRY CRITERIA

- Outline the evolution of the initiative over time, including details of the communications strategy and demonstrate how it is aligned to the specific needs of the target group (50%).
- Provide information on the success of the initiative e.g. how it made a significant and measurable difference to the patient / customer group (50%).

BEST PUBLIC HEALTH INITIATIVE

This category recognises programmes or initiatives aimed at increasing public awareness and sense of responsibility, for preventing the onset of disease or delaying/managing disease progression.

Entries should show how they have promoted lifestyle changes, provided information on how and where to seek advice, and improved a specific aspect(s) of the health and wellbeing of the group the programme/initiative was developed for.

ENTRY CRITERIA

- Outline the programme/initiative and demonstrate how it is aligned to the specific needs of the target group and provides education on disease awareness and/or management (20%).
- Show how it improves clinical practice or the delivery of services and standards of treatment (30%).
- Demonstrate the creativity or innovation in content, presentation or delivery (20%).
- Demonstrate evidence of new or changed perceptions and sustainability among the target group, measured against key objectives of the programme/initiative (30%).

CATEGORIES

EXCELLENCE IN PATIENT OR CUSTOMER SUPPORT

This award recognises the importance of focusing on the patient or customer within marketing activities. This award will be given to the company and/or its partners who have developed and implemented a programme/initiative that can demonstrate a significant and measurable difference to the patient or customer group in their disease management.

ENTRY CRITERIA

- Outline the programme/initiative and how it was relevant to the appropriate patients or customers (30%).
- Demonstrate that the needs of this group were met by the programme/initiative (30%).
